The entertainments for each of the first two evenings will consist of instrumental numbers, songs and readings. The programme for the closing evening will be furnished by Gilbertson's orchestra. The ladies of the church are expecting to see you. You will do well to come to enjoy the concert if nothing else. The admission fee will be only 10c.

Think the Cedric Safe.

New York, Nov. 26.—The White Star agents in this city report that they have no information of any mishap to the Cedric, and she is expected to arrive here on time. The Cedric sailed from Liverpool last Wednesday with 200 first class, 103 second class and 540 steerage passengers.

Sabbath School Wrecked.

London, Ont., Nov. 26.—The Presbyterian church Sabbath school at Phippen, Ont., a small town on the Grand Trunk north of here, was wrecked by a gas explosion. A tea meeting for the children was being held, and the gas meter burst. Nine persons were injured, including Rev. Mr. McLennan, the pastor. Several of the injured will probably die.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup seems especially adapted to the needs of the children. Pleasant to take; soothing in its influence. It is the remedy of all remedies for every form of throat and lung disease.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's Ointment never fails.

German Fois Seekers Home. Kiel, Russia, Nov. 26.—The German anti-aircraft exploring steamer Gauss, which Commander Peary, U. S. N., may possibly purchase for his north pole expedition, has arrived here. Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia was among those present at the welcoming ceremonies on board the vessel. The undersecretary of the interior greeted the members of the expedition in behalf of the government. Professor Drygalski, leader of the expedition, gave a short description of the work accomplished, as already known.

Dead From an Attack of Bandits. Butte, Mont., Nov. 26.—Captain Rooney, a well known pioneer in Montana, is dead after two months of suffering from the effects of a severe beating at the hands of holdup men who tried to steal from him the proceeds of a mine sale. He had participated in the famous battle of the Merriam and Monitor, being on the Confederate ironclad.
